ST. CRUCIS LUTHERAN CHURCH, Beacon Bay
LUTHER CHURCH, Brakfontein

Pastor MURIEL KOSSMANN

AUGUST - SEPTEMBER 2001

23 July 2001.

Dear Friends in Christ,

that's how all our worship services start.

But what does that mean? And secondly what does that imply for us being members of St. Crucis and Luther?

Allow me a few personal thoughts on friendship :
A friend to me is someone who is very close to my heart.
A friend is someone I can rely on at all times. A friend is someone who tries to understand me. A friend is someone, who supports me, cares for me and sticks to the eighth commandment in its full sense. A friend is granting me love and respect - no matter in what condition I am. And, not to forget, a friend has to be the one at times, who corrects me when I need it. A friend must have the guts to tell me where I am wrong - in a caring and respecting way.

Dear Congregation, we call ourselves friends in Christ. We do that, because our Lord Jesus Christ called his disciples his friends (John 15,14). He calls us his friends, because he made known to us everything he had learnt from his Father. Christ continues in verse 16 : you did not choose me, no, but I chose you.

Christ chose us to be his friend in our baptism, he has granted us a life in a close relationship with his Father. He made us his sisters and his brothers - as he calls us in Matthew 12,50 and at the same time he made us all children of God.

This fascinates me again and again - and that is why I love the opening words of our services : Dear friends in Christ - that is what we are. Because Jesus Christ has chosen us to be his friends we also become friends with one another. This friendship, into which we are called by Christ himself, is the heart of the Church of Jesus Christ. And we are blessed that we may be part of his Church.

May God bless you all in the coming months and grant us caring and fruitful friendships with one another.

PASTOR

Muniel Kossman
